FOREWORD

A Foreword in a Catalogue of a Public Auction Sale may be presumed to be motivated by at least two very good reasons. The first and most important of these is firmly based on a pair of typographical facts. The technique of printing requires that the total number of pages in the publication be divisible by four and custom requires the first page of the text, or list of coins offered, to lie on the right. A Foreword is a useful filler when an extra page is needed, and this one certainly insures that the Sale will begin on a right hand page. As a Secondary Function, such a composition may be presumed to serve as a Guide to whatever highlights and interesting groups of coins there are to be found among the thousand or more lots spread before the Collector with the expectation of arousing his Numismatic interest to the point where he will try to buy some of them.

If this analysis strikes any reader as unusually blunt for a Coin Catalogue, let him reflect that it is the Policy of Coin Galleries, within our obviously human limitations, to be equally forthright in describing the coins we offer for sale, whether by Public Auction, or in our Numismatic Review. We like this Policy because our experience shows that it has a touch of originality today, and because we believe it results in fewer disappointments among the buyers.

The First Session will complete the dispersal of Consignment New Jersey, other important segments of which appeared in our Sales of last year. The coins of Central Europe, the Holy Roman Empire and Germany are particularly prominent, along with a not inconsiderable offering of Latin American and British Commonwealth material. While the Gold is not extensive, there are some nice pieces. The Numismatic Books also include some useful volumes which any good collector should be proud to have in his Library.

The Second Session contains several consignments, of which two offer a quantity of Canadian coins. If there are no great rarities here there is enough material of the kind popular among Collectors to warrant close attention. The most important part of this Session, however, is devoted to a really fine consignment of Gold Coins. There are a number of rarities and many really choice pieces. The consignment devoted to Papal coins contains many types and denominations not easy to find these days in addition to some Scudi, which if they are not superb, are at least potentially useful additions to any collection devoted to this series. The Crown Collector should also give this section his particular attention.

The number of reference books used in the preparation of any Sale is almost too great to list conveniently and includes many works to be found in only a very few private libraries. Every Collector should, of course, be familiar with Friedberg's books, "Gold Coins of the World", and "Coins of the British World" (Fdbg.); Raymond's, "Coins of the World 19th Century" (C.W.); Yeoman's, "A Catalog of Modern World Coins" (Y.); Prof. Davenport's various books on Crowns (Dav.). We wish to call your attention here to an important new reference which is bound to be of increasing value. "Silver Dollars of North and South America." In accordance with the suggestion of a colleague of ours we have used the abbreviation SDNSA for this book. After our first experience here we find these initials a bit clumsy and in the future will shorten them to SD.
